Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' course evaluations: (The five university-wide questions should be included. Compilation from digital questionnaires can be appended.)

Below are mean values described on a scale from 1 (to a very little extent) to 6 (to a very high extent):

Course as a whole (5.1); Extent the course has met expectations (4.9); Learning Outcomes reached (4.6); Working methods/learning activities, lectures, seminars, reading of literature, Canvas, and assignments average mean (4.8); Forms of examination (5.1); Opportunity to take responsibility for your own learning (5.3).

Feedback on course content, organisation, and teacher has been positive. Students have also commented that the course is useful and provides a lot of practical information. For some, the schedule works, but one comment was that the classes could be earlier. Good assignments and a rich learning experience. Although some commented that the course worked very well, others requested more practice, and more lectures.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views/Results: (The comments on the course's implementation and the results based on an assessment of the students' actual learning outcomes in relation to the intended learning outcomes, are summarised here. Both success factors and problems are identified).

Generally, the course has received good reviews. However, some adjustments will be made for Autumn 23, namely more practice and revision of one of the assignments. In previous evaluations, the course has generally had positive comments from students, and some suggestions were made that have been integrated successively.
