Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' oral and written feedback: A general satisfaction with the course contents and structure.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views: Only 14 % of the course attendants answered to the summative evaluation. Active participation = 12-15 students. The small group of students that were present were all active and contributed well to the joint discussions. A challenge is to attract students to non compulsory teaching activities.
