Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' course evaluations:

Based on what students have written in their reports from the research internship, they have appreciated the opportunity to take part in ongoing research projects in the Department. The same was expressed during the oral presentation of the projects at the end of the course. Students appreciate the possibility to engage in research that will be of help for their thesis writing and to get an "inside" understanding of how research is done.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views/Results: Both students and those supervising students during the research internship much appreciate the possibility of doing an internship and having interns working in the research projects. Students engage in various ways in the ongoing research projects by performing tasks like collecting and analyzing material, participating in meetings in research groups (when applicable) and the like.

Analysis and action plan (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Analysis: The internship course works well, cooperation between research interns and supervisors works well and the opportunity is as said above much appreciated.

Action plan: No changes planned.
