What has been especially good about the course?
The bi-weekly assignments, the quick feedback from our teacher, the big amount of background materials.
Very sophisticated and yet relatable grammar. A good mix of vocabulary, exercises and audio.
Its well organized and teachers are really helpful. All kinds of extra materials to extend your learning
The diversity of materials, live sessions organised by the instructor
The detailed presentation of the grammatical features.
The mandatory assignments have helped me keep the motivation to learn
The thorough feedback was very useful and also the mixing of cultural topics with learning a language gave interesting depth to the subject.

What can be developed in the course? Please give some concrete suggestions/ideas

A better search function to go through materials or one consolidated workbook of all materials. Sometimes I noticed after a week or so that I still struggled with a particular item, and then it took a bit of time clicking through all links to find the exercises to practice this topic a bit further.

Might be nice to have some topic related vocabulary exercises as well.

Not sure if the non-live form of the course is the most efficient. More interactions with the instructor and students would be appreciated.

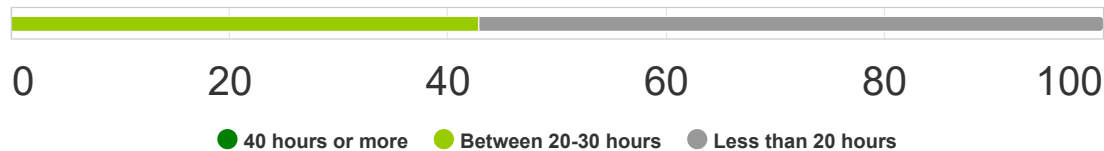

I am considering changing the format of the learning materials beneficial. Downloadable copies would serve better. They give students a chance to save the content and return to it after graduating from the course.

Maybe it's better to post one bigger lesson per week instead of two. It felt a little much.

It would be interesting to have tasks that make us record saying/speaking some exercises in georgian.

Please summarise your overall experience of the learning infrastructure (e.g. Canvas learning platform, Library, GPS administration, university facilities) all was really good!

I like the interface although it is a little complicated to navigate to certain contents such as some of the assignments discussion rooms.

Very good

I have been familiar with Canvas and found it very simple to navigate. I have not experienced any issues otherwise. Overall, I am satisfied with the course, and I highly recommend it.

Perfect! Great!

Canvas was very well and thoroughly structured. Very high level of systematized.
