

The course report is an important instrument for the development of courses and programmes, as well as for guaranteeing student influence. The structure for course evaluation is described in Riktlinjer för kursutvärderingsprocessen (LED 1.3-2018/123) and in Rutiner för kursvärderingar och kursrapporter för hälsa och samhälle (LED 1.3-2016/187). The course report shall contain background information/key indicators, a summary of the students' course evaluations, as well as an analysis and action plan.

The course report is compiled after each completed (full) course

Results: Comments on the course implementation and the results based on an assessment of the students' actual learning outcomes in relation to the course's intended learning outcomes are summarised here (incl. information regarding the result of the examination). Both success factors and problems are identified

Overall, the course received a total grade of 5.0, which is considered to be good. The students reported that the course has a strong research basis (grade 5.1), that the examination of the course have given them the opportunity to show how well they have achieved the intended learning outcomes (grade 4.1), and that course have given them the opportunity to take responsibility for their own learning (5.4).
--

Analysis: Analysis based on a summary of the students' individual course evaluations – both formative as summative. Produced in collaboration with the teachers involved in the course; alternatively, the views of participating teachers are taken into account.
---

Overall, the students were satisfied with the course. However, they also thought that there were to many examination tasks and to littele instructions on the course, wich they found very stressfull.
---

Action plan: Changes to be made in the short and long term are stated here, as well as the timetable for when the actions will be implemented, as well as the person responsible for the implementation. If identified problems are left without action, this must be justified. Follow-up of proposed measures according to the previous course report(s), is presented here.
---

More detailed instruction regarding the examination tasks will be provided to the students
