Administration's perspective (To be completed by course administrator)

The administration's views:

Forms of evaluation and feedback (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Formative course evaluation: After each presentation (once a week) we talked a bit a about the course.	Number of students who participated in the course evaluation: 11
Summative course evaluation: Evaluation was a fom in the end of the course.	Number of students who participated in the course evaluation: 4
Feedback to students: We will do less presentations and only one case/group next year

Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' course evaluations: (The five university-wide questions should be included: Students were mostly positive about teaching and what they learned. They felt freedom, trust and enjoyed working in mixed teams. They very much appreciated working with stakeholders but were a little bit annoyed about that the course, teachers and case owners was not always expecting the same thing. They felt that there were quite stressful taking on two cases and with weekly presentations.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views/Results: (This year was the first time the course run. We will do some adjustment, like making sure we all understand the cases in the same way, less presentations and only one case/team. We will also make sure there is time for students that come in late in the course to work with group dynamics and so on.

Analysis and action plan (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Analysis: (The course coordinator is responsible for ensuring that the analysis is based on a summary of the students' individual course evaluations, views from relevant teachers and course administrators, knowledge development in the field of research and that this analysis is done in collaboration with the teaching team.)

Action plan: (The changes planned to be made in the short and long term are stated here, as well as the timetable for when the actions are planned be carried out and who is responsible for the implementation. If identified problems are left without action, this should be justified. The follow- up of proposed measures according to the previous course report(s) is presented here.)
