Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' oral and written feedback:
- About 80% of respondents (6 students) ranked the course overall with 5 or 6 points on the 6 points scale
- 1 student primarily expressed grievances about the previous third semester course
- Consistent positive feedback about the flexibility of the thesis course, supportive feedback from supervisors and an overall positive way to complete the program

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views:
- No major points to report
- A few more submissions than usual in August-almost on par with the number in May/June; something to watch and take into consideration when planning staffing

Action plan (To be completed by the course coordinator)

The underlaying analysis and the action plan should be based on a summary of the students' individual course evaluations, views from teachers in the course and the knowledge development in the research field. If identified problems are left without action, this should be motivated.

The following changes are planned in the short and long term:
WHAT should be done, WHO should do it and WHEN should it be done?

- Other than keeping an eye on developments in the areas of AI and ethics this course will remain unchanged as it runs well and is very clear for students, supervisors and examiners
- The course is expected to have a record number of students VT26, probably between 60-65 which needs to be considered when staffing the semester

Remember to orally feedback the results of the course evaluation to
• the students who have completed the course evaluation
• the students of the next course round, i.e. the next time the course is given
