

COURSE REPORT – Summary of course evaluation

The course report is a summary of the course evaluation. The course evaluation takes into account the students' course evaluations, the study administration's views, the teachers' views, and the course outcome, ie the students' actual results, course completion, and conditions for course implementation such as teaching and supervision time, premises and support functions. The course report also contains an analysis and development/action plan for the course.

The course report forms the basis for feedback to students and follow-up in quality dialogues both in the education-centered and in the university-wide quality work.

Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' course evaluations: (The five university-wide questions should be included. Compilation from digital questionnaires can be appended.) The interactive parts and the discussions were appreciated by the students. The examinations – the free essay that gave students freedom to develop their thinking, and the case assignment that was more practical oriented – was also appreciated. Some student reported repetition within the course. Some students report that they want more feedback in order to improve their work.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views/Results: (The comments on the course's implementation and the results based on an assessment of the students' actual learning outcomes in relation to the intended learning outcomes, are summarised here. Both success factors and problems are identified). Below are mean values described on a scale from 1 (to very little extent) to 6 (to a very high extent).

Learning outcomes reached (4,5); Work/learning activities to support your learning (4,1); Forms of examination (4,1); the course as a whole has met my expectations (3,5); Has the course given you possibilities to take responsibility for your own learning (4,9).

Analysis and action plan (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Analysis: (The course coordinator is responsible for ensuring that the analysis is based on a summary of the students' individual course evaluations, views from relevant teachers and course administrators, knowledge development in the field of research and that this analysis is done in collaboration with the teaching team.)

Some student reported that the course was research focused and wanted more practical knowledge.

Some students report repetition within the course and wanted an expanded focus.

Action plan: (The changes planned to be made in the short and long term are stated here, as well as the timetable for when the actions are planned be carried out and who is responsible for the implementation. If identified problems are left without action, this should be justified. The follow-up of proposed measures according to the previous course report(s) is presented here.)

Adjustments will be done to avoid repetitions from previous courses and within the course. We consider giving the first module a clearer focus on critical management studies. We consider moving intersectionality out from the first module to the second module and expand the focus of the second module.

Exercises that are more practical related will be considered.

Publishing and archiving (To be handled by the course administrator)

- The course report is published, and the students have been informed about the publication,
- The course report is archived according to the university's archiving rules,
- The course report is shared with the programme coordinator (if applicable),
- The course report is saved according to any additional requests on behalf of the department.
