

COURSE REPORT – Summary of course evaluation

The course report is a summary of the course evaluation. The course evaluation takes into account the students' course evaluations, the study administration's views, the teachers' views, and the course outcome - ie the students' actual results, course completion, and conditions for course implementation such as teaching and supervision time, premises and support functions. The course report also contains an analysis and development/action plan for the course.

The course report forms the basis for feedback to students and follow-up in quality dialogues both in the education-centered and in the university-wide quality work.

Administration's perspective (To be completed by the course administrator)

The administration's views:

Forms of evaluation and feedback (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Formative course evaluation: (Describe the form of course evaluation and when it was completed). Student representatives give their feedback at the programme council which was held twice during the spring semester.	Number of students who participated in the course evaluation: 6
Summative course evaluation: (Describe the form of course evaluation and when it was completed). The evaluation was sent out after the course.	Number of students who participated in the course evaluation: 2
Feedback to students: (Describe how and when the feedback will be given to the current student group). Feedback is given at the start of the next course and the course evaluations are uploaded to the programme Canvas site.

Student's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the students' course evaluations: (The five university-wide questions should be included. Compilation from digital questionnaires can be appended.) The students who answered gave the course 5 – 6 points in the evaluation, which signals that they were very satisfied. However, given the low number of participants, it's challenging to give comments based on this evaluation.

Teacher's perspective (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Summary of the teacher's views/Results: (The comments on the course's implementation and the results based on an assessment of the students' actual learning outcomes in relation to the intended learning outcomes, are summarised here. Both success factors and problems are identified).

The course went well. The discussions at the programme council showed that students were satisfied with the course.

Analysis and action plan (To be completed by the course coordinator)

Analysis: (The course coordinator is responsible for ensuring that the analysis is based on a summary of the students' individual course evaluations, views from relevant teachers and course administrators, knowledge development in the field of research and that this analysis is done in collaboration with the teaching team.)

The course went well. The two seminars during spring were appreciated. After taking them out in 2025, we started offering them again this semester 2026, since they are greatly appreciated by the students and teachers alike.

Only half of the students presented their thesis in May, which was a very low number. The next seminar takes place in August.

Action plan: (The changes planned to be made in the short and long term are stated here, as well as the timetable for when the actions are planned be carried out and who is responsible for the implementation. If identified problems are left without action, this should be justified.

The follow-up of proposed measures according to the previous course report(s) is presented here. We will try to encourage all students to present their thesis in May. We already do so, but we will emphasize the importance of handing in on time even more the coming course.

Publishing and archiving (To be handled by the course administrator)

The course report is published and archived according to the university's instructions.

The students are informed about the publication.

The course report is shared with the programme coordinator (if applicable) and saved according to any additional requests on behalf of the department.
